Free workshop will help Salem area senior citizens protect themselves against insurance and financial abuse

Seniors citizens are often targets for deceptive sales practices or scams because many of them have accumulated large sums of money from a lifetime of savings and asset appreciation.

To help seniors and their families learn how to avoid insurance and financial abuse, the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services (DCBS) is holding a free workshop in Salem in February. The workshop begins at 12:15 p.m. Friday, February 22, at the Salem Senior Center, 1055 Erixon St. NE. It will cover how to:

- recognize predatory marketing techniques used by insurance agents and security brokers,
- choose insurance and financial products suitable for your needs, and
- avoid scams.

The workshop is part of the department's SAFE program: Senior and Family Education on Insurance and Financial Issues. For more information, please call 503-947-7984, ext. 7275.
